But when the Arian bishop came into the prison, the servant of God, remembering that he was not his own but God's man, rebuked the unbeliever as he deserved, and drove him from his presence with just reproaches. The bishop, therefore, went away again to that Arian father. And when he came to Leovigild, he waxed exceeding wroth, and sent his servants to kill God's faithful witness where he lay. Which thing was done; for as soon as they came to him into the prison, they clave his head with an axe, and freed him from the dying life of this house of our tabernacle.
